Jacksonville Improving.

As an evidence of the spirit of improvement in our town, we would mention that there are some four or five handsome and comfortable dwelling houses in process of erection—an Iron Foundry has been built, and is now in operation, by Messrs. Crow & Miller—Messrs. Wyle & Turnley have commenced the manufacture of the celebrated Uley Patent Plows, on a scale to supply all demands—and we believe Messrs. Carroll and J. D. Hammond are having the Grand Prairie Washing Machines, said to be the best ever brought to this country, made up here in neat and durable style. These are but beginnings. Jacksonville is certainly one of the most eligible points in the State for the purpose, and is certainly destined to be a manufacturing place of considerable importance.

Our Dry Goods and Grocery Merchants are well supplied with well selected stocks, and can make it a saving of both time and money for the people in the surrounding country to trade with them.

HOTEL CHANGE.—Messrs. Alexander & Son have taken the Brick Hotel recently occupied by S. D. McClellan, Esq.—These gentlemen have the business qualifications, and all the necessary means for a first class Hotel. They are enterprising and ambitious to excel, and it is not too much to predict that they will keep a first class Hotel, which will be a credit to our Town, give universal satisfaction to their patrons, and be equal in every respect to any in the interior of the State.

The special attention of consumers and dealers in Hardware, Iron, Nails, &c. is invited to the advertisement of Messrs. Bones, Brown & Co. of Augusta, Ga., and J. & S. Bones & Co. of Rome, Ga. These firms are composed of gentlemen of ability, integrity, experience, and are unimpaired in all the essential qualifications that go to make up the character of first class business men.

The house in Augusta, of which the Rome is a branch, has been established over forty years.

All their English Goods are of direct importation, and it needs only a trial to convince Merchants in this section, that they can save both time and money by buying of them.

A convenient new dwelling house and lot containing three acres, about one fourth of a mile from the court house on the Rome road, is now offered for sale on good terms. The house is new, contains 5 rooms, convenient out houses, a good well in the yard, fruit trees, &c. For further information enquire at this office.

Nov. Valuable and Useful Implements.—Farmers in this section, who may wish to increase their products by the use of improved implements, will be pleased to learn by the advertisement of Messrs. Wyle & Turnley, that they are now prepared to furnish Uley's Patent Plows in any number. The plow, as a matter of course, is the foundation of all agricultural improvement. This is one of the very latest improvements, in fact is believed to combine the advantages of all. We heartily wish our enterprising business success in their useful enterprise, which will be more advantageous to the farmers than themselves.

Two men, Charles Morrison, of Floyd Co. and John Appleton of Resaca, were killed instantly on the Rome Fair Ground, on Thursday evening, by the falling of one of the poles used in raising the fallow.

J. M. Carroll & Co., have just received a fine lot of Northern Butter.

See correction of day of Administrator's sale of Land, from Saturday to Tuesday, by Wm. M. Haines, Adm.

Capt. W. F. Bush has sent to our office a specimen of the Texas Burr, which is said to be an excellent fertilizer of land. From their looks we should say they would be ugly customers on a man's clothes, but that inconvenience could be very well tolerated, in consideration of the much needed improvement of land.

The time of holding the Montgomery Conference has been changed by order of Bishop Paine, from December 1st to December 8th, 1899.

Mr. J. F. GRANT,
Editor "Republican"

DEAR SIR:—
According to instruction, I herewith transmit to you a copy of the proceeding of the annual meeting of the Agricultural S. C. C., which I could not do earlier, owing to my necessary absence in the discharge of my professional duties.

Yours Truly,
GEO. I. TURNLEY,
Rec. Sec'y A. S. C. C.

Jacksonville, Ala. Oct. 16, 1899.

This being the day specified in the constitution, for holding the first annual meeting of the Agricultural S. C. C. Said Society was called to order by Pres. J. C. McAuley, at 10 o'clock A. M.

1st. The Secretary being called upon, read the minutes of the last meeting, which were on motion adopted.

On motion, the President then appointed Samuel D. Dowdell on committee of Arrangements, in lieu of J. M. Carroll.

On motion, the President then appointed Wm. Johnson and Robt. McCain, Esq., on committee of Judges for the Plow Match, in lieu of W. R. Hanna and D. F. Weaver.

Afterwards, on the match grounds, the Pres. appointed Geo. W. Humphries on said committee in lieu of F. Snow.

The reports of committees then being called for, the committee of arrangements reported the following, to-wit:

"Your committee of arrangements beg leave to report as follows: They have selected Capt. Isaac M. Ford as Marshall in Chief; Mr. J. L. Mattison and his corps will take possession of the grounds and maintain order. An address will be delivered by Capt. B. I. Harrison, in the court house at 11 o'clock, A. M. The Society will then adjourn to the grounds, under the superintendence of the Marshall in Chief, where the plow match will take place. The Society will, through their committee of five Judges award their premiums to the successful competitors on the grounds of the contest.

D. P. FORNEY, Ch'm.
Com. Arrangement,
Ed. L. WOODWARD, Sec'y.
Com. Arrangements.

which, on being read, was read, and adopted with the following amendment, to-wit:

"Resolved, that the report of the committee on arrangements be amended by adding the following: (i. e.) The successful competitor in the first contest shall not be allowed to enter in the second.

It now being eleven o'clock, the hour appointed for speaking, the Sec'y, Geo. I. Turnley, introduced B. I. Harrison to the Society, who delivered an able, eloquent, interesting and instructive address, of about one and a half hours length, in which he urged all citizens of whatever trade or profession, to encourage the advancement of Agriculture in every possible way; by the use of all improved implements; and fertilizers, which either enrich the soil or save labor, etc., and to make our farms and houses so rich, lovely and attractive, that none of us will emigrate, and that all who visit our country will be induced to settle among us.

The Society then took recess for one hour, to assemble again on the grounds selected for the plow match; (i. e.) the Miller Francis lot.

At two o'clock P. M. the Society having assembled at the appointed place, the contestants with two-horse plows were called out, and on drawing for positions, no. 1 was assigned to David Jennings, using a Clipper plow, no. 2, to Thos. Pelham, using an Echols, no. 3, to Mosses Holmes, using a Dodge & Brinley plow, no. 4, to A. T. Hanna, using a no. 5 Brinley, no. 5, to Thos. J. Broyles using a no. 2 Brinley, no. 6, to W. V. Hanna, using Brinley no. 2, no. 7, to Robt. Dowdell, using Brinley no. 2. The contest was now begun, and continued the remainder of the evening, after which the Society adjourned to meet the following morning at the court house for the transaction of business.

Oct. 16th, 1899.

The Society met this day, according to adjournment, at 9 A. M., and was called to order by J. C. McAuley, Pres.

On motion, L. W. Cannon was added to the committee previously appointed to examine the books of the Sec'y and Treasurer, and audit the accounts of the same; which committee, after retiring a short time, reported the following, to-wit:

"The undersigned committee, appointed to examine the books of the Secretary and Treasurer of the A. S. C. C., and audit the accounts of the same, beg leave to report that the Sec'y has collected from the members one hundred dollars, ($100) all of which has been paid over to the Treasurer. We have examined the vouchers and allowed the credits of the Treasurer as follows, to-wit:

By subscription for papers, $83 00
" Paid for Treasurer's book 60
" " Printing, etc. 5 00
" " Secretary book 3 00
" " expenses of plow match 4 55

making total credits, $94 65
leaving bal. cash on hand, 65 35

$190 00

The books of the Secretary show that out of sixty-two members there are twelve who have not paid their initiation fee, all of which is respectfully submitted.

L. W. CANNON, Ch'm.
ROBT. MCCAIN,
Ed. L. WOODWARD, Com.

Said report having been read, was received and adopted by the Society, and the committee discharged. The following resolution was then offered and passed, to-wit:

"Be it resolved that the thanks of the Society be, and the same are hereby tendered to Dr. M. W. Francis, for his kindness in allowing us the use of his lot for the plowing match, and that the Secretary be instructed to address a note to Dr. Francis, containing a copy of this resolution.

The committee of Judges then reported as follows, to-wit:

"To the Officers and Members of the A. S. C. C. County: "Your committee, appointed to act as Judges at the plow-match, and decide which of the competitors were entitled to the premiums offered, beg leave to report the following, to-wit:

"At 2 o'clock on the second Thursday of October, the contestants with two-horse plows, entered for the plowing match, to-wit: T. J. Broyles, David Jennings, Thos. Pelham, Mosses Holmes, Robt. Dowdell, A. T. Hanna and W. V. Hanna, presented themselves on the ground selected for the contest, and position no. 1, was assigned to David Jennings, who used a Clipper plow; position no. 2, to Thos. Pelham, using an Echols plow; no. 3, to Mosses Holmes, using a Dodge & Brinley plow; no. 4, to J. T. Hanna, using a no. 5 Brinley plow; no. 5, to T. J. Broyles, using a no. 3 Brinley plow; no. 6, to W. V. Hanna, using a no. 2 Brinley; all of whom did good plowing, and proved themselves masters of the soil the plow and the teams they used. They all plowed deep, broke the soil well, and left a fine loose bed with a nice smooth surface of well broken ground, all of which was so skillfully executed, that it was not a little difficult for your committee to determine which were entitled to the premiums; but on the best examination your committee could give the matter, they decided that W. V. Hanna is entitled to the premium of the plow; and that as the one plowing next best, Robt. Dowdell is entitled to the wreath of flowers prepared by the ladies. The contestants using the one horse plow were then called for, when T. J. Broyles, A. T. Hanna, Robt. H. Dowdell, D. Jennings and Thos. Pelham, all using no. 1 Brinleys, presented themselves and began the contest; at the conclusion of which, your committee decided that David Jennings was entitled to the bouquet prepared by the ladies who witnessed the contest.

Your committee have not yet delivered the premium plows to the afore mentioned successful contestants, but will do so at an early day. All of which is respectfully submitted.

P. ROWAN, Ch'm.
Wm. JOHNSON,
G. W. HUMPHRIES,
WYLY CARPENTER,
ROBT. MCCAIN, Committee.

The following resolution was then offered and passed, to-wit:

"Be it resolved, that the thanks of the A. S. C. C. be, and the same are hereby tendered to the ladies who favored us with the encouragement of their presence and electric smiles at the plowing match, and the first annual meeting of the Society; and that the aid and encouragement of the ladies of Calhoun county is as essential to the perfect success of the Society as it is to the success of every other good and laudable enterprise; and that they are hereby requested to lead all their aid in building up and advancing what the Society regards the highest and best interest of the entire county; which includes the interests, not only of the farmer, but of the mechanic and professional man also.

The following resolution was then introduced, and after being read, the Sec'y has collected from the members one hundred dollars, ($100) all of which has been paid over to the Treasurer. We have examined the vouchers and allowed the credits of the Treasurer as follows, to-wit:

By subscription for papers, $83 00
" Paid for Treasurer's book 60
" " Printing, etc. 5 00
" " Secretary book 3 00
" " expenses of plow match 4 55

making total credits, $94 65
leaving bal. cash on hand, 65 35

$190 00

The books of the Secretary show that out of sixty-two members there are twelve who have not paid their initiation fee, all of which is respectfully submitted.

L. W. CANNON, Ch'm.
ROBT. MCCAIN,
Ed. L. WOODWARD, Com.

Said report having been read, was received and adopted by the Society, and the committee discharged. The following resolution was then offered and passed, to-wit:

"Be it resolved that the thanks of the Society be, and the same are hereby tendered to Dr. M. W. Francis, for his kindness in allowing us the use of his lot for the plowing match, and that the Secretary be instructed to address a note to Dr. Francis, containing a copy of this resolution.

Further action upon it was postponed until the next annual meeting, to-wit:

Be it resolved, that Art. 5d of the constitution, be amended by striking out the word two in the 6th line and 4th clause of said art, and inserting in its stead the word one, also, by striking out the word two in the 8th line, and 6th clause of said art, and inserting the word one in its stead.

On motion, a committee was then appointed consisting of E. T. Read, Maj. D. P. Forney and L. W. Cannon, to request a copy of Capt. B. I. Harrison's address for deposit in the archives of the Society; and also for publication.

The election of officers was then commenced, and the following officers were elected for 1870:

J. C. McAuley, of Beat No. 13, Pres.
T. B. Douthett, " " " 1 Vice.
T. J. Broyles, " " " 2 " " D. F. Weaver, " " " 3 " "
J. L. Kirby, " " " 4 " "
J. M. Webster, " " " 5 " "
John Dowdell, " " " 6 " "
G. W. Humphries, " " " 7 " "
W. V. Hanna, " " " 8 " "
C. D. Davis, " " " 9 " "
E. T. Read, " " " 10 " "
G. I. Turnley, " " " 11 " "
J. W. Whitesides, " " " 12 " "

It was then resolved that the Society, through the Recording Secretary, Geo. I. Turnley, should request the Editors of the Rising Star and the Jacksonville Republican respectively, to publish the proceedings of this meeting. On motion, the Society then adjourned to meet again on the first Monday in December, 1899.

GEO. I. TURNLEY, Sec'y.

Dear "Republican":—

We go to the grave because it is the last gate we saw our friends pass through. Somehow we feel that they will come back that gate. But death is a wall without a gate—no gate opening back toward the living! When we turn to the lives of the dead, it is there we find a heart and hand, not a pulseless grave without a greeting. In the words they spoke, never a voice faded and tuned to the heart of friendship and love; this voice is a whisper, not yet gone into eternity—this whisper, a word in memory's ear. This life and their voices are unity. To the life of Lewis D. Ritchey, Lottan turn to find alive, cheerful, sociable, and in after years a firm and devoted friend. He was born in Calhoun county, Alabama—died in the same county and State on the 4th August, 1899, during the 25th year of his age. His mortality was caused by a wasting disease from Typhoid Fever. I am yet to see a sufferer suffer more, or see a more painful endurance. He felt his whole frame melting through a wistful abyss; but murmured not. I visited him frequently during his illness, saw him suffer—heard him whispering prayer, but never heard him complain. Between those starts of agony, he would smile the cheerful boy again. From his mother he inherited much of that amiability of nature, which society strangled like a silver chord and wove beautiful meshes around the hearts of those who knew him. Lewis D. Ritchey was a man of fine character, a man of fine mind that had planned many good enterprises—some he had begun to build but he "endured a chastisement" and one after one he slowly yielded up till he lay a submissive child waiting the call of a Father—in fact he got ready and willing to go, went over his mother and sister, and died.

He said "my soul has met God, I am willing." His soul met his Father. God—his body has met his mother, Earth. Their union is our separation. We can only say "LEWIS FAREWELL!"

CHARLIE A. KING.

MARRIED.—On Tuesday the 19th ult. at the residence of the Bride's father, by Rev. J. J. D. Renfro, J. C. Whaley to Miss Margaret Renfro.

LIBERAL.—We have never known such a liberal man in trade as our friend JIM DAWBY & Co. In every community in which he has introduced his excellent Phonograph, he has given away more bottles of his "Tonic Syrup" than he has received in return. And yet he has his reward, for each bottle shipped up a demand for a dozen. He is now shipping it by thousands all over the South.

EXTRA SPECIAL NOTICE.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!
Smith's Tonic Syrup has been counterfeited, and the counterfeiter brought to grief.

SMITH'S TONIC SYRUP.
The genuine article must have Dr. JOHN BULL'S private stamp on each bottle. Dr. John Bull only has the right to manufacture and sell the original JOHN BULL'S TONIC SYRUP of Louisville, Ky. Examine well the label on each bottle. If you purchase, or you will be deceived. See my column advertisement, and my show card. I will prosecute any one infringing on my right. The genuine SMITH'S TONIC SYRUP can only be prepared by myself.

THE SNOW STORM.
Chicago, Oct. 26.—Advises from central Wisconsin state that the thermometer has stood at 32 degrees all day—the coldest day for the season in 15 years.
The storm has been quite general at the North.

FROM FORT WAYNE.
Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 26.—From about midnight last night until six o'clock this morning, about twelve inches of snow fell in Northwestern Indiana. The oldest inhabitants cannot remember a snow of such depth in this section. Considerable damage to telegraph lines and fruit trees was done by it. To night the snow is nearly all gone. The weather is cold.

FROM WASHINGTON.
Washington, Oct. 26.—There are ugly rumors of a heavy pressure for further postponement of elections in Mississippi and Texas.

FROM CINCINNATI.
Cincinnati, Oct. 26.—President of the Kentucky and Central Railroad.
A brilliant success, with a rumbling sound and a splashing smoke, passed over Dayton. At the same hour an enormous meteor passed over Forest Station, eastward, resembling a brilliant headlight, with a shooting star, which shot houses, broke windows, and awakened the people. There were three heavy explosions.

FROM ST. LOUIS.
St. Louis, Oct. 26.—Private dispatches say the steamer Stonehill was burned to day forty miles above Cairo. Of the crew and passengers, numbering two hundred and fifty, but forty-three were saved. Dispatches from San Lake indicate a serious scene in the Morgan Church. Senhouse, editor of the Salt Lake Telegraph, and for many years Brigham Young's most staunch supporter, heads the rebellion. The daughter is one of Brigham Young's son Joseph's wives.
LATER.—Details of the loss of the steamer Stonehill, state that the vessel left St. Louis on Tuesday evening for New Orleans, heavily laden with passengers, horses, mules, hay and other freight. She was burned to the water's edge. Effort was made to land, but the boat was so heavily laden that she could not reach nearer than 100 yards of the shore. Great confusion and terror prevailed. About 200 persons and their property were saved. A large number being women and children. The flames spread rapidly, and scores of men jumped into the water and attempted to swim ashore, but were nearly all lost.
The pilot, engineer, carpenter and 41 passengers are known to have been saved. Capt. Clark and other officers and many passengers were lost. All the books and papers of the boat were lost, as were all the cattle and freight. Many persons died after reaching shore from exposure, all the women and children were lost and nearly if not all having been to death, the conduct of the passengers, and officers is said to have been heroic. Such an appalling scene has never been witnessed on the Mississippi for many years. The saved were kindly cared for by the officers of the Belle Memphis, and were carried to St. Louis.

FROM LANCINGBURG.

POETRY.

THE ETERNAL GOODNESS.

By J. G. WARRIEN.

O friend with whom my feet have trod
The quiet aisles of prayer,
Glad witness to my soul for God
And love of men I bear.

I trace your lines of argument:
Your logic, linked and strong,
I weigh as one who dwells in doubt,
And fears a doubt is wrong.

But still, my human hands are weak
To hold your iron creeds;
Against the words ye bid me speak
My heart within me pleads.

Who fathoms the Eternal Thought?
Who takes of essence and place?
The Lord is God. He needs not
The poor device of man.

I walk with bare, hushed feet the ground
Ye tread with hushedness shod;
I fear not fix with me and bound
The love and power of God.

Ye praise His justice even such
His pity, love I deem;
Ye seek a thing I find would touch
The robe that hath no seam.

Ye see the curse which overbroods
A world of pain and loss;
I bear our Lord's beatitudes
And prayer upon the cross.

More than your schoolmen teach within
My soul, I know;
Too dark ye can not paint the sin,
Too small the merit show.

I low my forehead to the dust,
I feel mine eyes for shame,
And urge, in trembling self-distrust,
A prayer without a claim.

I see the wrong that round me lies,
I feel the guilt within,
I hear with groan and travail-cries,
The world confess its sin.

Yet in the maddening maze of things,
And tossed by storm and flood,
To one dead stone my spirit clings:
I know that God is good.

Not mine to look, when cherubim
And seraphs may not see,
But nothing can be good in him
Which evil is in me.

The wrong that pains my soul below
I dare not think above;
I know not of his fate—I know
His goodness and his love.

I dimly see from his blessings known
Of power out of sight,
And with the greatest Paolists, own
His judgments, too, are right.

Long for household voices gone,
For vanished smiles I long,
But I have lost my dear ones on,
And none do me wrong.

I know not what the future has
Of hope or of despair,
Assured alone that God and death
His mercy understand.

And long heart and flesh are weak
To bear the burden of pain,
The burden of the world and not break,
But strength and love remain.

No offering of my own I have,
No words to add to prayer,
I can but give the gifts He gave,
And praise His love and care.

And so beside the silent sea
I wait the untried day,
No Latin from the East come to me,
Or Greek or Jew or Aryan.

I know not where His islands lift
Their rounded peaks in air;
I only know I can not drift
Beyond His love and care.

O breathless if my faith is vain,
If hope-life thus I stray,
Pray for me that I may gain
The sure and sure way.

And Thou, O Lord, by whom are seen
The features of the life,
Forgive me how close I lean
My human heart on Thee.

Runover Evening of a Cotton King.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Graphic, writing under date of the 20th inst., says:
From the South comes a rumor that, notwithstanding the recent gold panic, in which so many "rings" went to "normal" state, a "cotton ring" is being formed in New York to bear the staple down to eighteen or twenty cents, when larger purchases will be made, with the anticipation of realizing thirty cents per pound in due time. There may be truth in the report, though it is extremely doubtful that it will be forwarded, and the cotton ring may be readily detected.

Caspian Sea on Fire.

A phenomenon of extraordinary nature has lately been witnessed by the inhabitants of the borders of the Caspian Sea. This huge salt lake is dotted with numerous islands, which produce yearly a quantity of naphtha, and is no uncommon occurrence for fires to break out in the works and basin for many days before they can be extinguished. About two months since, owing to some subterranean disturbances, enormous quantities of this inflammable substance were projected from the naphtha wells, and spread over the entire surface of the water, and, becoming ignited, notwithstanding every precaution, converted the whole sea into a smoldering of a gigantic flaming punch bowl, many thousands of square miles in extent. The fire burnt itself out in 48 hours, leaving the surface strewn with innumerable dead fishes. Herodotus mentions a tradition that the same phenomenon was once before observed by the tribes inhabiting the shores of the Caspian Sea.

Great Remedies.

DR. JOHN BULL'S

MANUFACTURER AND VENDOR OF THE

Celebrated

Smith's Tonic Syrup!

FOR THE CURE OF

AGUE AND FEVER,

OR CHILLS AND FEVER.

THE proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the cure of ague and fever, whether of short or long standing. It refers to the entire Western and South Western country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure. If the directions are strictly followed and carried out, in great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is however prudent, and in every case more certain to cure if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and longstanding cases. Usually, this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order; should the patient however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of Bull's Vegetable Family Pills will be sufficient.

BULL'S

WORM DESTROYER,

To my United States and World-

Wide Readers.

I HAVE received many testimonials from professional and medical men, as, my ailments and various publications have shown, all of which are genuine. The following from a highly educated and popular physician in Georgia, is certainly one of the most sensible communications I have received. He speaks of, and his testimony deserves to be written in letters of gold. Hear what the Doctor says of Bull's Worm Destroyer:

VILLANOVA, WALKER COUNTY, Ga.

June 29, 1898

Dr. John Bull—Dear Sir: I have recently given your "Worm Destroyer" several trials, and find it wonderful efficacious. It has not failed in a single instance to have the wished for effect. I am doing a pretty large country practice, and have daily use for some article of the kind. I am free to confess that I know of no remedy recommended by the ablest authors that is so certain and speedy in its effects. On the contrary they are uncertain in the extreme. My object in writing you, is to find out upon what terms I can get the medicine directly from you. If I can get it upon easy terms, I shall use a great deal of it. I am aware that the use of such articles is contrary to the teachings and practice of a great majority of the regular line of M. D.'s, but I see not just cause or good sense in discarding a remedy which we know to be efficient, simply because we may be ignorant of its combination. For my part, I shall make it a rule to use all and any means to alleviate suffering humanity, which I may be able to control. I am hesitating because some one has informed me that you have learned his secret and secured the sole right to secure that knowledge. However, I am by no means an advocate or supporter of the thousands of worthless nostrums that flood the country, that purport to cure all manner of disease to which humanity is liable. Please reply soon, and let me know of your best terms.

I am, sir, most respectfully,

JULIUS P. CLEMENT, M. D.

BULL'S

SARSAPARILLA.

A Good Reason for the Captain's Faith.

Read the Captain's Letter and the Letters from his mother:

Benton Barracks, Mo., April 29, 1895.

Dr. John Bull—Dear Sir: Knowing the efficacy of your Sarsaparilla, and the healing and beneficial qualities it possesses, I send you the following statement of my case.

I was wounded about two years ago—was taken prisoner & confined for sixteen months. Being moved so often, my wounds have not healed yet. I have not set up a moment since I was wounded. I am still through the hips. My general health is impaired and I need something to assist my nature. I have used your Sarsaparilla three or four times, and feel better. I wish that that is genuine. Please express me my affection, bottles, and oblige.

CAPT. C. P. JOHNSON,

St. Louis, Mo.

P. S.—The following was written April 29, 1895, by Mrs. Jennie Johnson, mother of Capt. Johnson.

Dr. John Bull—Dear Sir: My husband, Dr. C. P. Johnson, was a skillful surgeon and physician in central New York, where he died about the year 1890. He was a chronic drinker, and for which I gave him your Sarsaparilla. He died in 1890, and I have for ten years recommended it to many in New York, Ohio, and Iowa, for scrofula, liver sores, and general debility. Perfect success has attended it. The cures effected in some cases of scrofula and liver disease, are beyond all praise. I am very anxious for my son to again have recourse to your Sarsaparilla. He is fearful of getting a spurious article, hence his writing to you for it. His wounds were terrible, but I believe he will recover. Respectfully,

JENNIE JOHNSON.

BULL'S

CEDRON BITTERS.

Arkansas heard from.

Testimony of Medical Men.

Stone Point, White Co., Ark., May 23, 1896.

Dr. John Bull—Dear Sir: Last February I was in Louisville purchasing drugs, and I got some of your Sarsaparilla and Cedron Bitters.

My son-in-law, who was with me in the store, has been down with rheumatism for some time, commenced on the Bitters, and soon found his general health improved.

Dr. Gist, who has been in good health, tried them, and also improved.

Dr. Coffey, who has been in bad health for several years—stomach and liver affected—he improved very much by the use of your Bitters. Indeed the Cedron Bitters has given you great popularity in this settlement. I think I can get a great quantity of your medicines this fall—especially your Cedron Bitters and Sarsaparilla. Ship me via Memphis, care of Rickert & Neely.

Respectfully,

C. B. WALKER.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Cele- brated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of sexual weakness, or Seminal Weakness, (Protrusion of the

Lenses, Impotency, Mental and Physical

Losses, Impediment to Marriage, etc.,

also, Consumption, Emphysema, and Firs, induced by self-indulgence or sexual excess.

Price, in sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the use of internal medicine or the application of the knife, pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

THE Advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge), with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, etc. The object of the advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he believes to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription, will please address

Jacksonville, Feb. 24, 1898

A fine assortment of Ladies Gold Watches and Chains, just received by

JOSEPH E. VFAL.

WHEREAS, by an act of the General

Assembly of the State of Alabama, approved the 10th day of October, 1898, it is provided as follows: to-wit: "It shall be the duty of the Probate Judge of each county in this State to designate a newspaper in which

all legal advertisements, notices or publications, of any and every character required by law to be made in his County, shall be published; which paper so designated shall be the official organ in and for said county;"

and in obedience to the requirements of said act, I, as Judge of Probate for Calhoun

County, Alabama, did heretofore designate the "Clarke County Eagle," as the official organ in and for said County of Calhoun, in which all legal advertisements, notices or publications of any and every character, required by law to be made in and for said

County of Calhoun should be published, said

designation to remain until recalled or changed

by me.

And the "Jacksonville Republican," being a County paper, published in the Town of Jacksonville, Alabama, and in my opinion, clearly within the provisions of said act, I therefore recall and change my order designating the St. Clair County Eagle, as the official organ for said County of Calhoun, and designate the said Jacksonville Republican as the official organ hereafter, in which

all legal advertisements, notices or publications of any and every character required by law to be made in and for said County of

Calhoun shall be published. This designation to remain so long as in my opinion, the Editor of said Jacksonville Republican conducts said paper so as to be within the provisions of said act.

A. WOODS, Judge of Probate.

From Washington.

Correspondence of the Baltimore Gazette.] Frauds on the Revenue—The Use of Internal Revenue Stamps—A Loss to the Government of Ten Millions per Annum.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20, 1869.

More frauds on the revenue have been discovered, involving a loss to the Government, as is said, to the amount of $10,000,000 per annum. The following particulars are given by a gentleman well informed in revenue matters:

"Commissioner Delano has discovered the wonderful appreciation between the receipts of the two Governments on the item of stamps, and for several months his attention has been directed to obtaining a successful solution of the question. It has long been demonstrated that the frauds perpetrated through fraudulent stamps has been an enormous check to the equitable collection of the revenue. The counterfeiting of them amounts to nothing in comparison with their rendition by chemical washing processes to a condition as good as new, even after they have been used and canceled as the law directs, by pen and subscription on their face. The records of the United States courts show unmistakably that the ingenious and scientific minds, embraced among those who are naturally violators of law, are engaged in the washing of revenue stamps. It has been clearly demonstrated that men in different localities follow the business methodically, and employ large numbers of persons in the collection of stamps that have been once used, which, when submitted to a chemical process of cleansing become as perfect as the original stamp.

"There can be no question but that the re-use of revenue stamps in this country is the principal reason why the Government loses so much in 1868, the United Kingdom derived a revenue from stamps of $63,225,790 02, while for the same fiscal year the United States derived from the same source but $14,852,225 02.

"Commissioner Delano appreciates, and has deprecated, this state of fraud for some time. Various plans have been suggested to secure equity in this important matter of revenue. The law provides that every person shall cancel the stamp used, by writing the date of its use and his initials across the face. This may be universally complied with, and the frauds still continue, for the fraud on stamps arises from the fact that all over the country persons are engaged in gathering the once used stamp, cleaning it by a chemical process, and selling it for re-use, as good as new. It is estimated that the revenue of the country suffers to the extent of at least ten million dollars per annum from this. When, therefore, we say we can realize at least twenty-five million dollars per annum from stamps, it is because we know Commissioner Delano has the subject under consideration, and proposes, by the authority given to him by Congress, to adopt such regulations as shall prevent the continuance of these frauds.

A committee of experts, appointed to examine the suggestions and inventions submitted for the purpose of securing a uniform cancellation of revenue stamps, will soon report.

THE WACO TRAGEDY.—The Examiner has the following somewhat different version of this affair from that given in its extra, published in the Picayune:

Thomas and Henry Grimes visiting Waco, on the 17th, for the purpose of purchasing a suit of clothes for one of them, who was preparing for his wedding. Both had recently returned from the North, where they had been with a drove of beavers, and seemed to have plenty of money. In the exuberance of their mirth and gaiety, natural to the hour and circumstances, they imbibed too much liquor, and became somewhat boisterous, but they were finally persuaded to leave town. They rode off quietly, but a short distance from town one of them fell off his horse.

Conyers, a Federal soldier, and acting as one of the city police, then procured a horse and followed them, but the poor drunken boys refuse to be arrested, when Conyers returns for reinforcements. The young men—the one who had fallen having remounted his horse—ride in furious but drunken haste, until they reach the residence of Col. George Burney, about one mile from the city, where one of them again falls from his horse, and is so drunk that he can scarcely remount him; detained here by this accident they are overtaken by Conyers and his reinforcements of Federal cavalry. The battle commences; the fire is almost simultaneous, and according to the version of this horrible affair, Conyers is shot in the hand. The Federal soldiers having discharged their pieces, halted to reload, and the two brothers, one with a wounded horse, rode on past Mr. John Burney's house, until they are hid by the brow of the hill, just beyond his house, when the soldiers came dashing on in hot haste after the flying brothers, and as soon as they reached the top of the hill and discovered the fugitives, they fired upon them and continued firing until the unfortunate brothers were dead and riddled with balls. Such is the latest account of this awful tragedy, that has changed in a few hours bridal robes into funeral garments.

A Bloody Wedding.

We learn that while a party was assembled at the residence of Mr. Hargrave, in Rock's spring, Grimes county, Thursday night, to attend the marriage of Mr. H's daughter, and a few minutes after the ceremony had been performed, a company of soldiers, in pursuit of some one supposed to be there, surrounded the house and demanded its surrender. Mr. Hargrave offered to surrender the house and every one in it, and went out to the captain of the squad. The report to us is that while Mr. H. was out, a pistol in the hands of a young man went off accidentally.

The soldiers in front of the house immediately opened fire. A Miss Russell had just stepped into the gallery to get a drink, when she was hit in the head with a minnie ball, and in the leg with a buck-shot, and instantly killed. A Mr. Fowler was also killed. Royla Pearce and Mrs. Antery were wounded. With the first shot, the gentlemen in the house started every one to lie down flat down upon the floor. But for this, our informant thought, many more lives would have been lost. The groom and several others were arrested and carried off.

Houston Telegraph, 24th.

The Griffin (Ga.) Star says:—

"Mr. Dismuke, our Ordinary, assisted Mr. S. W. Bloodworth yesterday in measuring the corn that grew on his hacienda, and it amounted to one hundred and thirty-seven and one-seventh bushels. Mr. Dismuke will make oath to the correctness of this statement.

Negro Mobs.

The following from the Hayneville Examiner shows a rather bad state of affairs in our neighboring county of Lowndes.

A gentleman and a negro became involved in an excited controversy at Benton Saturday. Words ran high and knives were drawn by both. The white man went off to a friend and secured firearms, while the negro, advised by his friends, left the place. The white man followed him a mile or so from town and found a gang of negroes standing the decisive stand in the highway near Mrs. Dismuke's with the saddle on. They concluded that the fellow had been put to death—a suspicion that gained ground when he failed to return to his home near Goodsville that night. Rumors were sent out to gather the "dons" and a rendezvous was designated. Some of the negroes advised against such proceedings, and the result was that only thirteen bucks—armed and equipped with deadly weapons—started for Benton the next morning. When asked where they were going, one of them replied that they were going to hunt Jo. He was asked if it took guns and pistols to find a dead negro. On they marched to Benton. But the missing negro was not in the road. Jo had seen his pursuer, and, abandoning his mule, had taken to the woods. If the mob of negroes had not met him it is quite certain that they would have proceeded in the attempt to avenge him.

If Jo had been a little later on his homeward tramp, or had taken a different route home, these thirteen negroes might have involved an entire community in a game in which bullets would have been the dice and life the stake. It is high time that negroes were made to understand that they are not to take the law into their own hands. In North Lowndes McKibben taught them that it was the right way; out in west Lowndes there is a class of men who would have turned over a new chapter to them if they had attempted to do violence in this instance. The laws of the State are bad enough, without the interference of a brutal mob to execute them.

The Southern Pacific Railroad.

We are very glad to learn from the following Washington correspondence of the Charleston Courier, that the prospects of the Southern Pacific railroad are so bright. The Courier's correspondent writes from Washington under date of the 17th inst., and says:

"The South is to have a Pacific Railroad, with eastern connection at Charleston and Norfolk. Unlike the Northern Pacific roads, it is to be built without one dollar of financial subsidy from the United States, and, possibly, without even selling an acre of the public lands. The Congress can certainly do nothing less than to grant the right of way through the public domain, and furnish the company with a charter, restrictive in its character to the stock and bondholders of the road. The Southern road will not be a lobby scheme, and will have no conflicts in Congress against the collective power of public plunder. It is to be the work of the capitalists, unaided by Congress, and in the hands of men in this country and Europe who will furnish the show of the road. Yesterday your correspondent was informed of all the details of the great movement.

A convenient new dwelling house and lot containing three acres, about one fourth of a mile from the court house on the Rome road, is now offered for sale on good terms. The house is new, contains 5 rooms, convenient out houses, a good well in the yard, fruit trees, &c. For further information enquire at this office.

We owe an apology to our readers this week. In consequence of a press of work in printing Blanks, Association Minutes, &c., we have been unable to devote proper attention to the editorial department. The length of the County Treasurer's Report also excludes our usual variety. We promise our readers however, in return for their kind indulgence, a decided improvement in the future, with several additional columns of reading matter.

STAGE ACCIDENT.—We regret to have to state, that on Saturday last, while the Stage was passing from this place to Gadsden, about five miles west, while descending a hill, the brake gave way, and precipitated the driver, Mr. Rice, to the ground in front, breaking his jaw and dislocating his shoulder which will in the opinion of his physician disable him for some weeks. Dr. Ralls, who was also on the driver's seat, was thrown off and slightly injured. The horses ran about one mile and stopped without further injury.

The sale of Land by J. S. Wakefield, Adm'r, takes place on Thursday 18th inst., instead of Saturday, as heretofore published. The date of the month was right, but of the week wrong.

We are pleased to learn by a private letter, that the excellent and justly popular Grocery firm of Pittner & Smith, Rome, Ga. have just received one of the largest stock of Groceries ever brought to that city, to which they have added Liquors of all grades, guaranteed to be pure and above price, offered low at wholesale.

THE ROME FAIR.—By the Rome papers, as well as private sources, we learn that the late Rome Fair was a perfect success. The stock is now 75 per cent above par. The surplus money on hand will probably be expended in the purchase of suitable Fair Grounds.

A very large number of premiums and diplomas were awarded, among which we are pleased to notice, the Germania Tanning Co. located two miles north of this place took the following:

Germania Tanning Co., side kip leather diploma.

Germania Tanning Co., side upper leather, sugar spoon, two dollars.

Germania Tanning Co., side leather, sugar tongs, two dollars.

Germania Tanning Co., side sole leather, fruit knife, two dollars.

Willard Hotel, Louisville, Ky.—The price of board in this superior Hotel has been reduced from four to three dollars per day, without the slightest abatement in the excellence of its fair and accommodations.

FURS.—A good opportunity is now offered by J. B. Turnley & Co., to those who are conveniently situated, to obtain additional revenue for Fur Skins. It can be obtained too without trenching on other employments and profits.

REV. R. H. WILMER, Bishop of the Diocese of Alabama, will preach in St. Luke's Episcopal Church, to-morrow, 14th inst.

The Apostolic rite of confirmation will be administered to the candidates.

SINGULAR COTTON BOLL.—Mr. B. Denman has left at our office a cotton boll which has 12 department of the hull around the cotton, usually we believe only four.

We are requested to state that in consequence of Judge D'Arman being summoned to attend the District Court at Huntsville, his court will not be held next Monday, but adjourned to 3rd Monday in December.

The attention of those wanting to buy Personal property, such as horses, cattle, house hold and kitchen furniture, is invited to the advertisement of Joseph Smith, Esq.

Our College.

By reference to the notice of the Secretary, it will be seen that the Trustees of Calhoun College have made a call upon the Stockholders and all others interested in the subject of Education and the general prosperity of the Town and county to assemble at the Court House on the 20th inst.

This movement means "business" and we trust the day is not far distant when we can point with pride to "Our College" Buildings, filled with a corps of competent Teachers and scores of pupils from this and other counties.

Let every one attend, old and young—male and female. We hope that the Trustees will secure the services of some of our accomplished public lecturers to infuse into the minds and hearts of our people a greater zeal and interest in the cause to be promoted by the great Enterprise which we trust may be regarded now as an accomplished fact.

Boys Set Your Traps.

For any animals that has a Fur Skin—J. B. Turnley & Co., will pay high prices for Furs.

J. B. TURNLEY & CO.,

Want all the furs that can be caught by every trap in the country.

The Circus.

It will be seen by reference to advertisement in another column, that Grady's celebrated and popular old fashioned American Circus will be in this place on Thursday next. The riding and gymnastic performances are represented of superior order, and the lovers of fun and amusement are promised a rich and rare treat on the occasion.

See the advertisements of valuable Lands, by G. I. Turnley, Adm. These lands are valuable and desirable, and doubtless good bargains may and will be obtained at the sale.

A Truly Valuable Remedy.—Williams' Pancea for Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Sick or Nervous Headache, Sore Throat or Swelling of any kind, and other diseases. This medicine has been used by a number of persons in this place, and found to be no humbug, but an effectual remedy. A few bottles may be obtained of E. Goude.

Encourage Home Manufactures and Industry.—The energetic and enterprising firm of John Miller & Co. have erected an Iron Foundry on our place, and are now prepared to execute and fill all orders for articles in their line.

This establishment will be a great advantage and convenience to this section of country, and we hope that all persons, especially Mill owners, Mechanics, Manufacturers and users of Agricultural implements, will extend to them a liberal patronage, thus enabling them to enlarge their establishment at an early day.

In Memoriam.

The subject of this notice, Richard A. Ingram, was born in Putnam Co. Georgia, March 17th 1809, was married to Sarah B. McLendon Feb. 10th 1840—joined the Baptist Church in 1842, soon after his removal to Alabama; was ordained a Deacon of Oak Bowery congregation in 1852.

He died suddenly from disease of the heart, Sept. 18th 1869.

A good man has gone to his reward; for "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them" this is emphatically true of Richard A. Ingram. He died in the Lord; more, he lived in the Lord. His influence his thoughts, his daily walk, all tended to the building up of the church and of the community of which he was a member. In all the relations of life, as husband, father, citizen, neighbor, friend and Christian he was a true and true man.

His heart and his door were always open to the poor and the afflicted, and to the cause of Christ in all its varied calls. Liberal in his views and generous in his purposes, he was always actively engaged in promoting the welfare, spiritually, intellectually and socially of the community in which he lived. Eulogy of the dead is often extravagant, but of this man we cannot say too much; we who were his neighbors and daily companions mourn his loss; and in view of that great loss to the church, to the family, to the community, we are sometimes tempted to say as did the patriarch Jacob: "all these things are against me," but turning to that word which was ever to Richard Ingram and warning guide, the man of his counsel, we are comforted with that gracious declaration "all things work together for good to them that love God."

We would say to the sorrowing church of which he was truly a shining light, draw nigh to God in most fervent prayer that He will raise up from among you another such Deacon, "a man full of the Holy Ghost." To the community: Emulate his virtues, vice he had none, and foster those institutions and plans for the public good which he so cherished and so labored for while he dwelt among you.

To the bereaved and mourning family: submit to the will of God; preserve untarnished the fair name of your good husband and father; trust in Him who hath declared himself the husband of the widow and the father of the fatherless.

So live as to look forward in hope and faith to that time when the precious things of this Earth shall be gathered together. Look up, and be cheered, "for if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so they also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him."

A FRIEND.

Administrator's Sale of VALUABLE LAND
 Under and by virtue of an order of the Probate court, of Calhoun county, Ala., made on the 17th day of October, 1869; I will proceed to sell on Thursday the 18th day of Nov., 1869, at the late residence of Zachariah Leatherwood, deceased, at public auction to the highest bidder, the following described lands belonging to the Estate of Said decedent; to-wit: The South East quarter of S E quarter Section 15 and E half of N E quarter and N. E. quarter of N E quarter of E 1/4 S W quarter & E half of S W 1/4 except 20 acres in South end of Sec 22; also S half of N E quarter and N half of S E quarter and S W quarter of S E quarter Sec 23; also S W quarter of n w quarter and n w quarter of s w quarter Sec 24; and s e quarter of Sec 25, and e half of n w quarter and e half of s w quarter and s w quarter of n w quarter and north west quarter of south west quarter and north west quarter of north east quarter of Section 26; also east half of south east quarter and south east quarter of south east quarter and south east quarter of south west quarter, of section 27; also north east quarter of north west quarter and north west quarter of north west quarter section 34; also north east quarter of north east quarter and north west quarter of north west quarter section 35; also north half of north east quarter and south east quarter of north east quarter of section 36; all the aforesaid in Township 15, Range 7. Also west half of north west quarter of section 31, and north west quarter of south west quarter section 30 township 15 range 8; also south half of south east quarter section 2, township 16 range 8, all East in the Coosa Land District. Said Land will be sold in different Lots, on a credit of one and two years, in equal annual payments, with interest from date of sale with notes and approved security. The above lands have on a abundance of fine pine timber upon them, and are situated about 4 miles South of Alexandria, and some 3 miles northwest of BlueMountain.
 JOHN S. WAKEFIELD,
 Adm. of said estate.

Also at the same time and Place:
 The personal property of said estate, will be sold to the highest-bidder for cash. Consisting of Horses, mules, cows and calves, and dry cattle, sheep, and 4 genies, and thrashers, blacksmith tools, and farming tools, and a lot of wheat and some seed cotton. Wagons, buggy and harness, and many other things too tedious to mention.
 JOHN S. WAKEFIELD

"I'm afraid I can, Bessy," he answered, with a grave face. "The first time I went down the river two hours ago, I heard the voices of the men shouting, and I don't doubt your father is carried away with the rest. But don't be afraid; they're all safe. I hope, and they'll get to shore when morning comes."

I couldn't help crying when he told me that, and I nestled up to him as if I had been a child, and he put his strong arm around me. It was not long after this that we felt the house settling and tipping, and not much longer when it crumpled half-way over, and was whirled away into the air by the explosion that had been determining the foundations. That was an awful hour, indeed! "Ben held" one arm around me, and with the other hand grasped the window sill, while he braced his feet in the corner of the room; and then rising and falling of the poor wreck under the heavy current swept us along, going up at first the feeling that we were going straight to the bottom. The wind moaned outside, the water boiled against the planks, and the beams cracked and creaked as if the poor old house was all falling apart. Long before daylight we both saw that it was settling down deeper and deeper into the water, which rose over the upper floor, and when Ben had succeeded in knocking out the scuttle, he dragged me out of the room, how I don't know. I only know that he did it, and that but for him, my drowned body would have floated there in that old wrecked house when the morning came.

And I don't know, much about how the rest of that dreadful night passed. Ben sat upon the ridge-pole, and held me on by main strength; and in the cold and the darkness I believe I slept—certainly I forgot where I was for a long time, and forgot I was cold too. But then I didn't know until I woke up at broad daylight, that Ben had taken his coat off and put it around my shoulders. The house had sunk so low that one of the eaves was tipped clear out of the water, and the other was three feet under. We were drifting slowly down the centre of the stream. The shore was almost a mile off on either side, and there was not a sail nor a sign of help in sight. I looked at Ben perfectly hopeless and calm in my despair, and he looked back with hope and courage.

"There's some hope yet, Bessy," he said, cheerily, and his finger pointed to an object the sight of which filled my heart with gratitude to God, that he had heard and thus answered our prayers. It was my father's skiff, with the oars lying in the bottom of it, following along in our track as if to save us from destruction. I understood at once how it was. John Carlin had drawn it upon the shore after deserting us, and the rise of the flood had carried it out; and falling into the strong current of the neck, which set toward the middle of the stream, it had followed us all night. Ben looked wisely at it, and measured with his eye the distance to it. The raft to which we clung was alternately sinking and swelling, and the water sucked and eddied continually around it.

"This old raft can't swim many more hours," he said. "Can you hold on here alone, Bessy, while I swim out to the skiff and bring it to you?" He did not wait for me to reply, but lifted me to the place where he had sat, and showed me how to grasp the bars and rafters, where the back had been strained off. When he had done this, he stepped, just as he was going to let himself off into the water, and looked at me with a tender, mournful look that I can never forget—no, not if I should live to be twice four-score years old!

"You'll be safe in ten minutes, I hope, may God speed me for your sake! Yet if anything should happen to either of us, that we should not meet again in this world, I must tell you now, Bessy, that nobody has loved you as I have—that nobody loves you now as I do. Believe me, dear, that is true."

"I know it, Ben—I know it!" I sobbed, and I put up my face to his. He bent over and kissed me, with such a look of joyful surprise and overwhelming joy as I don't believe any man ever had before, and crying out, "Held, Bessy—held fast, girl!" he jumped into the river and struck out for the skiff.

I did not tell him when he left me that my hands were almost numb, and that I held tight to the rafters and watched him while the pain in my poor hands and arms was distressing me sorely. I saw him reach the skiff, and balance himself and labor carefully over its side to get in without overturning it; and when he had accomplished this my strength was almost gone. My hands were giving, slipping; I made one last spasmodic effort to retain my hold, and shouted wildly to him. I heard the splash of oars and his long, cheery voice encouraging me; darkness overtook me as my hands slipped their grasp. Clutching at the shingles, I slipped downward down, but not to my watery grave. The skiff shot past me. Ben Sample's arm snatched me from my peril, and I lay safely in the bottom of the boat, while his stout arms rowed me toward the shore.

"Look there!" he exclaimed, and I looked my last at the poor old house. The roof heaved and settled, the waters swelled up over it, and it sank in a wild whirlpool that sucked it down.

That was the last of our danger. We got to the shore and found a house, and before night we had a chance to take a swimmer up the river. In a day or two father came up with most of his men; and such a meeting as we had! The raft had been carried off by the flood, as Ben thought, and two of the men perished by drowning. And when I told him the true story of our misadventure, between Ben Sample and the little creature the world of fashion and wealth calls men.

Welladay! It's many a long year since then; it's many a long year that I lived as the happy wife of that same Ben Sample, and it's many a long year that I have known before me. How old are you, little Bessy? Nine, indeed! Then he died just boy, for you were born the morning that he died. He was your own grandfather, little Ben; and I can give you no better wish than that you may be as brave, as strong, and as good a man as was he.

This nation has lost by death, within the present month, three distinguished men, two in the civil service and one in the military service—all full of years and of honors. COL. CHARLES STEWART, died at Bordentown, N. J., on the 16th inst. aged 92 years, seventy-two of which had been spent in the service of his country.

ROBERT J. WALKER, formerly U. S. Senator and Secretary of the Treasury, died on the 11th inst. in the 68th year of his age. He was a controlling spirit in the policy which resulted in the annexation of Texas, and the anti-U. S. Bank policy of President Tyler.

AMOS KENDALL, who commenced his career as a farmer, afterwards school teacher, graduate of Dartmouth College, lawyer, editor of several different newspapers, afterwards 4th Auditor of the Treasury, and Post Master General, one of the best of this government ever had; died on the 12th inst. aged about 80 years. The latter part of his life was devoted to the management of Prof. Morse's electro-magnetic telegraph. He lived and died with an unblemished reputation.

SEMA TIMES & MESSENGER.—This sterling, valuable and interesting paper has been recently considerably enlarged and improved, and is now more than ever worthy of the liberal patronage it has always enjoyed, under the admirable management of its Proprietor, M. J. Williams, Esq.

The Rev. J. Woodruff has recently taken the entire editorial control and management of that spirited, neat and interesting paper, the "Rising Star," published at Oxford, Ala. If we are not greatly mistaken the Star will continue to rise under the efficient management of this gentleman.

ICEBERG TURTLE.—Mr. Wm. R. Hubbard left at our office last week, two turtles, raised by himself this year, one of which weighed six pounds and nine ounces. Beat this who can.

We wonder what has become of the biggest potato raised in this county in the year 1869.

We are requested by E. L. Woodward & Son, to say, that in consequence of the company from whom they purchased coal failing to deliver it, they find it impossible to comply with their engagements.

We publish in to-day's paper an article from the Selma Argus, complaining that the evil of inadequate supply exists in that city, and at other points.

It will be seen by reference to advertisement in to-day's paper, that Mr. J. H. Wisloman has established a daily hack line from Gadsden to the Wills Valley Railroad. This in connection with the daily line from this place to Gadsden, will be a great convenience to travellers going west from this section.

In the advertisement of the sale of O'Keef land, last week, by G. I. Turnley, Adm., it is described as lying in Cleburne county—it should have been Calhoun.

NEW DRUG STORE.—Dr. B. F. Tutt has opened a superb stock of Drugs, under the Choice Hotel, Rome, Ga. Dr. T. is a brother of the distinguished W. H. Tutt, whose special preparations are attracting universal attention. He has recently removed from Augusta, in which city he held for years an honorable position as a first class Druggist. We hope for the sake of the Cherokee country, that Dr. T. will receive such encouragement as will make him a permanent resident of our section.

THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO.

In the course of less than twenty years this Company have grown from a very small beginning, to be the most celebrated and extensive makers of the Organ and Melodion kind in the world, producing and finding demand for several times as many instruments as any other makers. Four large elephants were cut up every week to supply them with ivory for keys; so they must be said to consume more ivory than any other makers in the world. Their large organs rank highest not only in this country, but also in Europe, where the demand for them is rapidly increasing.

This remarkable success is undoubtedly owing greatly to their superior skill in this specialty and to the very important improvements they have effected in this class of instruments; but it is the result, almost in equal measure, perhaps, of adherence to, and energetic pursuit of, certain principles. Inflexible rules with them are (1) to do the right work only, and (2) to do it well. They are not content with being careful to suffer no inferior instrument to leave their factory; and (3) to sell always at smallest remunerative profits, having fixed prices which are alike to all.

Any one buying an Organ made by this Company has the satisfaction of knowing that he has one of the best instruments of the class which can be made, and this at the lowest price at which such work can be afforded.

"O SOPHOMORPHIC SOPHOMORPHIS!" This was the unmeaning exclamatory line in Thompson's Tragedy that caused the indignant poetasters to cry out from the pit, "O Jimmy Thomson! Jimmy Thomson!" Their ridicule proved greater than the poet's gains. Had he played his part as the poetasters intended, he would have been a laughing stock to the world. Instead of this, he has become a name to be revered. He has become a name to be revered. He has become a name to be revered.

EX-PRESIDENT ANDREW JOHNSON.

The Republican press are congratulating themselves over the defeat of Ex-President Johnson for the Senate. Let them not, however, be too precipitant. We can tell them that Mr. Johnson will be in the next Congress. He will be in the House from his district in East Tennessee. That is his old place, and from it he can vote the Radical party as well as in the Senate. The House was Ex-President Adams, position, and it will be Ex-President Johnson's. He is going there—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The cable telegraph reports the death of the Marquis of Westminster. It is noticeable from the fact that he was the richest nobleman in England. He owns, besides family estates in various countries, whole miles of lots in London and West-minster, covered with houses built on his grounds, which the taxes are soon to fall on. Years ago, his revenue was estimated to exceed £1000 a day, and it is increasing constantly. In a few years, when his grandson, son of his successor, comes of age it is computed that he will have an income from rents of more than £2,000,000 (two millions) of dollars per annum. The late Lord was distinguished for nothing but his wealth. His successor is his son, known as Earl Grosvenor, whose son-in-law is the noble Lord Belmore, well known by the courtesy title of Earl Grosvenor.

If the family estate could be equally divided, it would make all of them rich, for the late Marquis had thirteen children, of whom eleven are living; but by the law of primogeniture entail the eldest born takes nearly all.

Riot in Goldsboro Between U. S. Troops and Negroes.

Goldsboro, N. C., October 24.—Our town was thrown into a state of the wildest excitement last night, by a riot, which commenced early in the evening and lasted until ten o'clock, p. m., between the U. S. troops stationed here and the negroes. About seventy-five negroes were fired, and one soldier and one negro were wounded. The negroes did not stand the fire; they retreated after the first volley. The negroes walked up and down the streets, cursing the damn Yankees, individually and collectively. It is now twenty-four hours since the riot, and our authorities have not made or attempted to make the first arrest. The negro leaders are well known. There is a strong probability of the riot being renewed again to-night. There were three fights the night was retreating in the last. —Wilmington Journal.

General Thomas, in his report upon Alaska, declares that the United States has "paid too dear for the whistle." In the opinion of the General the territory is of no sort of agricultural value whatever; there is no immigration thither, and not the slightest inducement for any. It is not worth the expense of a civil government.

From Nashville Tennessee.

A special to the Courier Journal, of the 20th ult. says: After a good deal of discussion, the constitutional convention, bill was perfected to day and passed its third reading in the House. It will pass in the Senate without any material alteration. It provides for the election of one hundred delegates, to be voted for by all male citizens over twenty-one not convicted of any infamous crime. After the adoption of the new constitution, it will be submitted to the people for their ratification or rejection. An amendment was offered by the radicals confining the action of the convention to the repeal of the franchise law and the removal of disabilities, but it was voted down by a party vote. The second Saturday in December has been set for the election of delegates and the first Monday in January for the meeting of the convention.

A White Man's Government.

For years it has been a subject of criticism by the Radical press and politicians that the Democracy maintained that this was a "white man's government." The late Stephen A. Douglas, we believe, was the author of the phrase, although the idea had been frequently indirectly expressed by others. Of its truth no one familiar with the country could question. The censures upon it were the offspring merely of ignorance, passion and prejudice.

It is gratifying to know that while some foolish and malicious white men have, in it, been misled by the colored man, and a high-sounding agitator for colored men's rights, declare as I now do, that this is a white man's country. In all its widespread grandeur of mountains, valleys and plain, of river, lake and ocean, of densely crowded cities and uninhabited wilds, from sterile Alaska to the warm shores of the Gulf, this country belongs to the white man, to him and his heirs forever. It was a white man's ship, first, through the gloom which had shrouded this continent from the eyes of the Old World for so many centuries, and it was a white man who landed first upon the shore, claiming the new land for himself and his brethren. White men have conquered this continent. Its towering fields, its mines, its wealth-producing industries, its thousand cities, belong to them. This is a white man's civilization. We gain enlightenment from a literature which in all its varied departments—philosophy, theory, science, mathematics, poetry and prose—has been the work of white men. We have been enriched by the genius of white men. We have been enriched by the genius of white men.

There is more sense in the above than in the Republican speeches that were ever made, or in all the cantenments that ever appeared in their press on this subject.

Our New Rail Road.

The Selma, Rome & Dalton R. R. has transferred to the Jacksonville, Gadsden & Guntersville Railroad Company, that portion of the line between Gadsden and Jacksonville, with all the work done on it. In compliance with the recommendation of the Guntersville Railroad Convention last spring, this road will shortly be consolidated with the Gadsden & Guntersville road—or the old Tennessee & Coosa Railroad, making but one line under one management from Jacksonville to Guntersville. Now that the prospects of building the Enola & Opelika road are so promising we suggest that this road be built to Jacksonville, thus avoiding the necessity of another road across the mountains which will be unnecessary and cost a vast amount of money.

The Griffin & N. Ala. R. R. Co. is pushing the work on its line towards Jacksonville, and will connect with the Guntersville road at that point. We will be glad to see the energetic President of the Opelika road push on to Jacksonville, and trust after reaching that point every fair advantage will be offered by the Guntersville road in enabling Col. Pennington to reach the Tennessee.

THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO.

WINNERS OF THE
PARIS EXPOSITION MEDAL,
 WHO HAVE UNIFORMLY BEEN AWARDED
HIGHEST HONORS
 At Industrial Exhibitions in this Country,

So that their work is the acknowledged standard of excellence in its department, and perfect facilities, and by the extensive use of recent improvements, they are now producing yet more perfect organs than ever before, in great variety as to style and price, adapted to all public and private uses; for Churches, Schools, Libraries, Music Rooms, Concert Halls, Lodges, Churches, Schools, &c. in plain and elegant cases, all of which they are enabled by their unequalled facilities for manufacture to sell at prices of inferior work.

The recent improvements in these Organs have so increased their usefulness and popularity that they are unquestionably the most desirable instruments obtainable for family use, as well as Churches, Schools, &c. while the prices at which they can be offered ($50 to $100 each) adapt them to the means and requirements of all classes. They are equally adapted to secular and sacred music, elegant furniture, country little pipes, are not liable to get out of order, (not requiring tuning once where a pianoforte is tuned twenty times), are very durable, and easy to play upon.

The M. & H. Organ Co are now selling FOUR OCTAVE ORGANS for $50 each FIVE OCTAVE ORGANS, FIVE STOPS, with two sets of VIBRATORS for $125, and other styles at proportionate rates.

For testimony to the superiority of their Organs, the Mason & Hamlin Organ Co. respectfully refer to the musical profession, generally; a majority of the most prominent musicians in the country, with many eminences in Europe, having given public testimony that the Mason & Hamlin Organs excel all others.

A circular containing this testimony in full will be sent free to any one desiring it, also a descriptive circular, containing full particulars respecting these instruments, with correct drawing of the different styles and the lowest prices, which are fixed and invariable.

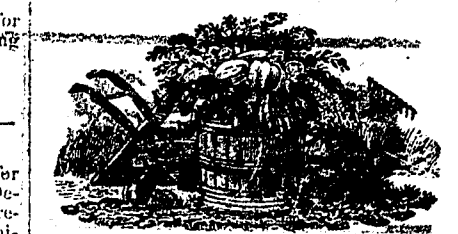

Address,
 THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO.
 556 Broadway, New York 134 Tremont Street, Boston.
